Since Thanksgiving is knocking on our back door, I want you to closely read the Bible verses below and the song on page 2.

Think of all of your relationships—family, friends, schoolmates, everyone.

Remember what makes your friends your friends, the common interest that binds you together.

Love the people in your lives. As the verse below says, love is what binds us together.

Be nice to all of your schoolmates, co-workers. Pick one person a week and do something nice. You will be amazed how much happier your life will be out of your acts of kindness towards others.

I know this past Sunday, all of the Children's Sunday School classes saw the Operation Christmas Child presentation. I encourage everyone to participate in this wonderful ministry, whether it be filling a box or making a donation. Even if you don't participate in this ministry, I encourage you to support some ministry this year.

Remember we as Americans have a lot to be thankful for. Praise goes out for that!!

Cherish your relationships with your friends and family. Make every day the best it can be!!

Sarah

BIBLE VERSE: Colossians 3:14-17

<sup>14</sup> And the most important piece of clothing you must wear is love. Love is what binds us all together in perfect harmony.

<sup>15</sup> And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are all called to live in peace. And always be thankful.

<sup>16</sup> Let the words of Christ, in all their richness, live in your hearts and make you wise. Use his words to teach and counsel each other. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankful hearts.

<sup>17</sup> And whatever you do or say, let it be as a representative of the Lord Jesus, all the while giving thanks through him to God the Father

Fit for the glory of God,
